Sunday s Colt and Other Stories of the Old West is simply the best western I ve read in ages. In fact, I loved it even more than Lonesome Dove. Trust me, if you re a fan of westerns, you ve gotta treat yourself to this one. -Margaret Marr, author Smith s characters and surroundings are described in such a realistic fashion that the reader can actually visualize being there. -Susan Conrady, reader and fan I have done a lost of research on the old west for many years and can tell Smith also put in some work on his locations, clothing, and firearms in his stories. I shoot in a couple of Cowboy Action Clubs and Smith s stories give us a good story line to use-for that they also let me shoot a few more rounds after dark! - Michael Fulbright, Old West reenactor Randy Smith has over 300 articles published on hunting, conservation, reenactment, Old West history, outdoor activities and educational issues. For several years he was a columnist for Old West magazine. His column Old West Gunsmith dealt with historical firearms of the 19th century. He is a field editor for Blackpowder Hunting and was a contributing editor for Firearms Quarterly. Boson Books offers several ebook novels and nonfiction works on the Old West by Randy D. Smith.
