What prompted them to suggest this particular and noble theme is, however, upon reflection, to my mind, very natural; and I venture to fancy that the relationship of cause and effect, from the nature of its particularity in the present instance, is invested with sufficient interest to warrant its being publicly set forth. All the children of my virtuous and devout mother have been drilled in Mary-cult and no picture is so familiar to them as Our Lady's Shrine. From the beginning it was the custom with our family that all of us children had to tramp - if not always disposed to, bound - to daily Mass, by our mother's side, during Mary's month. The memories of those bright May days are with us never to part. I see the red lamp blinking, nodding, wriggling, to free itself, as it...
